- 1. Vasile Malinschi, newly appointed Minister of Domestic Trade, reportedly is well thought of by the Soviet authorities in Rumania. When Marshal Veroshilov visited Rumania to participate in the ceremonies on 23 August the first person he saw was Malinschi, who brought numerous documents and reports and spent twelve hours with Veroshilov. Other Rumanian cabinet ministers were compelled to wait in an ante: until this lengthy interview was finished.
- 2. Malinschi is described as having but slight knowledge of the Rumanian language.
